

Liberty Girls Track:

JV OCC's

By: Grace Boettcher

This past Tuesday, Olentangy Liberty's girls track team had their JV OCC's race. It was the chance for non-varsity runners to run their final invitational before the season is over. The girls team won the whole meet with a total of 135 points.

The girls 4x800 meters won their race with a time of 10:42.34. The girls that raced were Makenna Overly, Grace Boettcher, Scarlett Yu and Ava Legates.

"It was super fun to run in the 4x800 with my friends, and it was even better when we won the whole race," said Junior, Makenna Overly.

For the sprinters, the girls 4x200 meters finished second with a time of 1:56.09. The runners were Avery Pollock, Kayla Price, Tessa Wade and Via Herson.

"It was a challenging and fun experience that required both focus and teamwork and in the end we were pretty successful," said Herson.

The girls who participated in high jump, freshmans Katie Boettcher and Natalie Mathis. They jumped heights of 4'6 and 4'4. The girls placed 3rd and 5th.

"It was super exciting to jump in this meet. This is my second year jumping and I am super glad that I made it as far as I did," Boettcher said.

Ava Legates, Makenna Overly, Scarlett Yu and Grace Boettcher after their 4x800 meter race.

Makenna Overly and Aly Sutton after racing in the 3200 meter race.