

This is one side of the waling bridge. It is right by the Dublin library. There are also living spaces down in Bridge Park, ont he right there are apartments. "I really enjoy going to Bridge Park with my friends and walking around and going to all the restaurants and espesially getting ice-cream," says Ali Amelung '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

Bridge

Offers Dining and

North market is a big market with a lot of food places inside. It has all kinds of food like boba, seafood, and coffee. It is a great place to get dinner if your family doesn't always agree on one thing. "North Market is really nice to go to because they have gluten free options for me and my family to get," says Grace Boettcher '24. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

Kilwins is an ice cream place in Bridge Park. It is one of the only ice cream places down there other than Jennies. Kilwins offers more than ice cream though. They have lots of chocolate covered items. It is a great place to have down there because ice cream after a dinner is always a good option. "Kilwins has great ice-cream and many flavors, it was a very enjoyable place," says Mia Hubert '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

Weenie Wondr is a fairly new food shop in Bridge Park. It is right next to Pins. It is known for it's hotdogs. It is a great place to grab something to eat if you just want to have a casual lunch."Wenie Wonder is a fun casual spot to eat at, they make it right in front of you which i think really adds to the place," says Emma Frame '26. The pearl is also one of the more popular places to eat in Bridge park. It is more of a fancy and expensive restaurant. It also has an outdoor seating that is popular during the summer. "I went to The Pearl after my sisters graduation and it was a great place to eat and I really enjoyed the food," says Madden Bailey '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

Park

Fun for Everyone

The Dublin library is located on the other side of the bridge. It is a huge library. It is also surrounded by Starbucks and other shops so it is a perfect location to have a library. "They have a great selection of books, and very good views outside that make the inside a nice environment," says Hannah Wasch '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

This is a newer sushi restaurant Song Ian. It is very good and the service is really nice. It is one of the best sushi restaurants I've been to in Ohio. "This new sushi restaurant was very good and the service was really good I would definitely go back," says Maddie Oldham '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

This is the famous bridge that Bridge Park is known for. It connects two sides of the area above the Scioto River. It is a popular spot to walk. Also, a good photo op for all ages. "the Bridge is a fun place to take pictures with my friends and enjoy eachothers company," says Morgan Chaill '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

Mr Sushi is one of two sushi restaurants in bridge Park. It is on the Other side of the bridge from the other sushi place, Song Ian. "The food was extremely good and the quality was worth the price," says Laykan Pierce '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.

Pins is a great place for friends and family. They have lots of games like ping pong, Bocce, and pinball. Their main game is bowling but with a twist, The lanes and balls are shorter and smaller. It is bowling 3 sizes smaller. There are also lots of TVs in there so it's a great place to go if you want to watch some sports. "Pns is one of my favorite places to go to wih my family and friends, we always have a great time there." says Brooke Feldman '26. Photo courtesy of Avery Hilvert.
